Message...

I am pleased to learn the Council of State Industrial Development and Investment Corporations of India (COSIDICI) is acting as a catalyst for rendering assistance and guidance through its network of 55 affiliated SLFIs. COSIDICI has been playing its role creditably during the past more than two decades and has produced the desired impact on the growth of the MSME sector.

I am sure the publication of bimonthly Journal titled "COSIDICI COURIER" will also help in training of officers of SLFIs and SFCs with a view to upgrade their conceptual and operational skills. I hope this apex body of SLFIs continues to render useful services to its Member Corporations and represent their views to the concerned authorities.

With best wishes.
